The Institute has unfettered right hereunder to terminate the arrangements at any time without assigning any reason whatsoever.

7. Force Majeure Clause: Force majeure is hereby defined as any cause which is beyond the control of the contracted bidder or IIML as the case may, which they could not foresee with a reasonable amount of diligence and which could substantially affect the performance of the contract, such as natural phenomena (including but not limited to floods, droughts, earthquakes, epidemics, etc.), acts / directions of any Government (including but not limited to war, declared or undeclared, priorities quarantines, embargos, etc.); provided that either party shall within 15 days from the occurrence of such a cause notify the other party in writing of such causes. Bidder to note that rains, droughts and monsoons are not part of force majeure and bidder is required to provide all its facility as per the stipulated minimum requirements.

The bidder or IIML shall not be liable for delays in performing their obligations resulting from any force majeure cause as referred to the defined above. Hence during the period of force majeure, as indicated and covered above, during which the services are not provided by the contracted bidder or not availed by IIML, both parties will not be liable for their obligations under the contract. Thus, the Force Majeure will free both parties from contractual obligations / liability when prevented by such events from fulfilling obligations, as the same will be suspended for the period of Force Majeure. However, if the performance in whole or part or any obligation under this contract is prevented or delayed for period exceeding 120 days, either party may at its option terminate the contract without any financial repercussions on either party by giving at least 15 days' notice.

8. Arbitration and Dispute Resolution: Any dispute and/or difference arising out of or relating to this contract will be resolved through joint discussion of the authorized representatives of the concerned parties. However, if the disputes are not resolved by joint discussions, then the matter will be referred for adjudication to a sole Arbitrator appointed by the Director of the Institute. The award of the sole Arbitrator shall be final and binding on all the parties. The arbitration proceedings shall be governed by Indian Arbitration and Conciliation Act 1996 as amended from time to time. The cost of Arbitration shall be borne by the respective parties in equal proportions. During the pendency of the arbitration proceeding and currency of contract, neither party shall be entitled to suspend the work/service to which the dispute relates on account of the arbitration and payment to the contractor shall continue to be made in terms of the contract. Arbitration proceedings will be held at Lucknow, Uttar Pradesh only.
9. Jurisdiction of Court: The courts at Lucknow, Uttar Pradesh shall have the exclusive jurisdiction to try all disputes, if any, arising out of this agreement between the parties.
